1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Martine on 6/19/08. During the telephone interview, the examiner pointed out that the "computer readable medium" as recited in claim 6 would encompass non-statutory subject matter such as punch cards and printed material as disclosed in the specification on page 7, lines 30-31. It was agreed that claim 6 would be amended to recite "a computer readable electronic storage medium" which excludes non-statutory subject matter such as punch cards, printed material, signals, carrier waves, etc.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 6, line 1, after "readable", insert "--electronic storage--.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: None of the prior art whether taken singly or in combination discloses "a specific color pixel average calculation module for calculating an average value for pixel values of specific color pixels having a color within a first predetermined range in the vicinity of a specific chromatic color, from among all of the pixels present in the image to be processed; a color balance correction value calculation module having a first computation mode for calculating a color value correction value based on the average pixel value of the specific color pixels" as recited in independent claim 7. The remaining claims require similar limitations. The inclusion of such limitations in the claims renders the claims allowable. The prior art found are Lin (6,975,759), Takahashi (7,146,041) and Noguchi (7,265,781). These references fail to disclose the claimed invention.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
